

Did You Know?

The world average of egg consumption per capita is 230.

Stories of Interest

* Please note that you can click on the headline to access the article

National and World

NYC Couple Hail Cab for 2,400-Mile Ride

Matthew Dowd, Turning Sour on Bush

Natural gas exporting nations meet, deny forming a cartel

GATT Turns 60

The Scale of Einstein, From Faith to Formulas

Sculpting Dubai's workforce

Malaysia lures the second-home set

Who Will Replace Bob Barker?

Railroad Shares Up on Buffett News

Religious Literacy: What Every American Needs to Know -- and Doesn't

Town Segregated By Choice

Eating off a messy table cuts food intake

State and Local

Court backs canal expansion in U.S-Mexico dispute

102-Year-Old Calif. Woman Hits Hole-in-1

A tribe in upheaval

A look at where Californians get their water for farms and cities

Lawsuit alleges dead rat found in elderly patient's mouth at center

Disney's Theme Weddings Come True for Gay Couples

Tribal gaming accords on the table

Office deal shows capital market hot

MTV's 'Pimp My Ride' & Governor Schwarzenegger Take Green to The Extreme With Special Earth Day Episode

Field Poll on status of illegal residents

Weekly Interview

Due to technical difficulties you may have experienced in last week's edition, our interview with Rob Fong has been re-posted.

Please note the interview has been attached as a word document under the subject line of this newsletter.

Upcoming

Sacramento Metro Chamber's Industry Breakfast Workforce

Friday, April 13, 2007

7:30 a.m. - 9 a.m.

Sheraton Grand

Ballots for the $326 million property tax assessment proposed by the Sacramento Area Flood Control Agency are due by April 19.

Check out this Website:

<http://fpanet.org/>

Noteworthy Legislation and Rulings

- Sacramento County health officials recommended yesterday that a Level II trauma center be placed at Kaiser Permanente's South Sacramento Medical Center. Both Kaiser and Catholic Healthcare West submitted bids Feb. 7 for the fourth trauma center in Greater Sacramento, which is expected to open in 2010.
- Supervisors in Riverside and Sacramento counties are considering deploying sheriff's deputies to enforce traffic laws in urbanized unincorporated communities if the California Highway Patrol can't increase its coverage in those areas. Riverside County Supervisor John Tavaglione and Sacramento County Supervisor Roger Dickinson want state lawmakers to give high-growth counties with fewer than 3 million people the option to authorize and fund traffic deputies.